Chairpersons Report

The chairperson welcomed members to the continuation of the 5th June AGM, which had been adjourned to the 26th June

Reviewing the previous meeting the chairperson recapped the following topics;

1. To make effort to reduce the number of empty plots across the three sites. Tackle the problem of overgrown plots and suggested that a working party should be organised to help clear some of them.
2. Fees would remain at £20.00/£10.00 for the 2018 - 2019 season.
3. The Association bank account had a closing balance of A/c £716.75
4. A list of allotment holders was given regarding outstanding subscriptions. It was noted that some still subscriptions were outstanding from previous year.
5. The chairperson confirmed that following the meeting of the 5th June, that she would be standing down with immediate effect.

It was agreed that the RAA understood and supported the Chairpersons resignation and would immediately reconvene with a new committee so that the RAA continued with a clear direction.

1. The Chairperson formally announced that the secretary Maureen Flynn and the Long Cutt site representative Andrew Skakle would also be resigning with
